

Litigation & accountability <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Litigation • EIA oversight and appeals • Holding government and private sector accountable 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workshops and education • Mother-tongue tools and mentoring • Next-generation women leaders 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Parliamentary submissions • Law and policy reform • Best practice in EIA processes • Partnerships
--	---	--

PROGRAMME Climate & Environmental Justice <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal advice opposing fossil fuel extraction • EIA oversight and appeals • Parliamentary submissions 	PROGRAMME Community Empowerment & Support <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workshops, climate education, manifestos • Legal protection for activists • Next-generation women leaders 	PROGRAMME Marine Protection <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Opposing coastal and offshore developments • EIA scrutiny for reefs, shores, dune systems • Coastal community rights 	PROGRAMME Biodiversity Conservation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Defending protected areas and strategic water resources • Law reform for indigenous species and ecosystems
---	--	---	--

CHANGE OVER TIME

NEAR-TERM CHANGE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Harmful mining and extraction projects challenged • Flawed EIA processes exposed and restarted • Protected areas defended against extractive encroachment • Community climate manifesto co-created • Young women entering environmental leadership • Training in isiZulu – workshops and EIA guide produced and distributed • Parliamentary submissions made • Coastal and marine ecosystems given legal voice in development decisions
--------------------------------	--

LONG-TERM VISION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Flourishing indigenous species and ecosystems supporting sustainable livelihoods across Southern Africa • Law as a living tool in the hands of communities throughout South Africa • Decisions about land, water, and wildlife shaped by ecological limits, community rights, and constitutional values • Communities across KwaZulu-Natal and Southern Africa equipped to assert and defend their constitutional environmental rights without dependence on outside legal support • Environmental Impact Assessment processes that are rigorous, transparent, and genuinely responsive to community participation • A new generation of women environmental attorneys and advocates rooted in the communities they serve • Coastal and marine ecosystems protected from extractive development, sustaining livelihoods and biodiversity from the shoreline to the deep ocean
--------------------------------	---